DESCRIPTION

Working downtown as a merger and acquisitions analyst is rough. Rough like that movie I watched where that guy out West got mauled by a bear and left for dead. But this is the West Side. Every day I lace up my boots, button up my flannel, comb my beard with a dab of oil, grab my axe, and head off to the 32nd floor for a grueling day in the urban wilds. After all these years I've learned one tough lesson: mead is for closers

MODERN MEAD. MADE FOR EVERYONE.
